[Harper's Weekly.] .
THE LITTLE COMFORTER.

I have a little Comforter,
That climbs upon my knee,
And makes the world seem possible
When things go wrong with me.
She never is the one to say,
"If you had only been
More careful and more sensible,
This thing had been foreseen,"
She blesses me,
Caresses me,
Caresses me,
And whispers, "Never mind:
To-morrow night
All will be right.
My papa, good and kind,"

To give me wise and good advice
I have of friends a score;
But then the trouble ever is,
I knew it all before.
And when one's heart is full of care,
One's plans all in a mess,
The wisest reasoning, I think,
Can't make the trouble less.
My Mamie's way
Is just to say,
"Oh. papa, don't be sad:
To-morrow night
All will be right,
And then we shall be glad."

Some think I have been much to blame;
Some say, "I told yon so";
And others sigh, "What can't be helped
Must be endured, you know."
Of course, if trouble can be helped,
Then crying is in vain;
But when a wrong will not come right,
Why should I not complain?
In Mamie's eyes
I'm always wise;
She never thinks me wrong;
It's understood
I'm always good—
Good as the day is long.

All day I've kept a cheerful face,
All day been on the strain;
Now I may rest, or I may aigh,
Or, if I like, complain.
My daughter thinks as papa thinks,
And in her loving sight
I am a clever, prudent man,
Who has done all things right.
Faith so complete,
Oh, it is sweet.
When neither wise nor strong;
But Love stands best
The better test
Of Serrow and of Wrong.

Then come, my little Comforter,
And climb upon my knee;
You make the world seem possible
When things go wrong with me.
For you've the wisdom far beyond
The reach of any sage,
The loving, tender, hopeful trust
That best can strengthen see
Say, "Papa dear,
Now don't you fear:
Before to-morrow night
The cares you dread
Will all have fied.
And everything be right."

MY LOVE. H. AIDE. My love's worth all the world to me; Her walk to others' dance is light. When she comes by, the sun rides high, And when she's past, 'tis night. Her gentle voice, that bids "good-day," Is music that my soul loves best; Her deep-set eyes, her low replies, The dreams that haunt my rest.

Her presence, like fresh morning showe Gives to all things refreshing grace; If she but stoop, sweet buds that droop Gaze up into her face. That May-day face—where nothing lives That is not bright, for long together; Thoughts come and go, like winds that blow The clouds in golden weather.

that challenged public criticism. How did you get here? I speak it before my country in deep humiliation, but it is the record of this Republic, that your majority rode to this House fetlock deep in human blood. Nay, nay, this is a matter of record and not more mere declamation. To get your majority more men were murdered for attempting to vote the Republican ticket than fell in defense of our flag at Gettysburg. In order to get and maintain your majority in this House more men went down under the knife, the revolver and the shot-gun, than fell fighting for the Republic at Malvern Hill or Shiloh. Powderly, the official head of the Enights of Labor, the strongest union of werkingmen in the United States, contributes a temperate ingmen in the United States, contributes a temperate article on "The Organization of Labor". The well-known British military correspondent, Archibald Forbes, writes of "The United States Army", dwelling more particularly on those features of our army management which appear to him to be most worthy of imitation by the military governments of Europe. "Woman's Work and Woman's Wages", by Charles W. Elliott is a forcible statement of one of the most W. Elliott, is a forcible statement of one of the most in man's work, whether of brain or of hand: such em-ployment, he insists, only reduces man's wages, and does not really add to the total resources of the whole class of workers. In a highly interesting essay on "The Ethics of Gambling", O. B. Frothingham analyzes the passion for play with rare ingenuity. "The Remuneration of Public Servants", by Frank D. Y. Carpenter, gives matter for serious consideration, both to the civil service reformers and their oppo-nents. Finally, there is a paper on "Artesian Wells upon the Great Plains", by Dr. C. A. White, of the
